CHARACTER INVESTIGATION – Battie

Circle your answers:

Battie shows more introverted/extroverted personality traits when he is himself/dressed up as Stretcho.

Re-watch the Episode and complete the table below.

Character Clue	Evidence from the Episode	What does this tell me?
What Battie says
What Battie does
What others say about Battie
How others respond to Battie

Example Answers:

CHARACTER INVESTIGATION – Battie

Circle your answers:

Battie shows more introverted/extroverted personality traits when he is himself/dressed up as Stretcho.

Re-watch the Episode and complete the table below to record your evidence.

Character Clue	Evidence from the Episode	What does this tell me?
What Battie says	"I think differently to other people" "Stretcho is strong and brave and smart" "Some people are scared of dogs" "I like sitting by myself and thinking"	Battie might not enjoy what he thinks most people do. He doesn't think he is strong, brave and smart. Battie might be scared of dogs. He is thoughtful and enjoys quiet activities
What Battie does	Looks down reflectively when talking about not being scared of little things. Discusses his own personality traits to the camera Battie didn't hear the bell ring. Battie freezes when the dog comes near him.	Battie can be scared of little things. He is insightful, reflective and thoughtful. Sometimes he is in his own world. Battie is definitely scared of dogs!
What others say about Battie	"Battie always dresses up as Stretcho" – Melanie Tamara and Melanie - "He plays by himself and talks to himself" "No one plays superhero games anymore except Battie" Debra-Jo "Do I jump on you when you make a sculpture out of sticks/lay sultanas in a pattern/when you talk to the tree?"	Battie likes routine and he really likes his made-up character Stretcho. Battie is independent, and enjoys spending time alone. He has a strong imagination and interests are different from most of his classmates. Battie is creative and enjoys solo activities
How others respond to Battie	Battie's classmates try to talk or play with him when he wants to sit alone and think.	His classmates worry that Battie doesn't like being alone.

CHARACTER INVESTIGATION – Battie

Circle your answers:

Battie shows more introverted/extroverted personality traits when he is himself/dressed up as Stretcho.

Re-watch the Episode and complete the table below.

Character Clue	Evidence from the Episode	What does this tell me?
What Battie says	"Stretcho is strong and brave and smart." "I feel different when I dress up as Stretcho, I feel brave" "Who suspended you above a vat of poinsonous snakes?" "I wanted to sit by myself and write my story in my head" "When I wear the Stretcho costume I feel brave and powerful"	Battie thinks when he is dressed up as Stretcho he is strong and brave and smart. He has a strong imagination, is creative and enjoys his own company. Battie feels differently when he is dressed as Stretcho than he usually does.
What Battie does	● Tries to save Melanie and Tamara ● Approaches others in the playground ● Runs around ● Battie yells and screams when the dog sits on him.	Battie/Stretcho is be brave and wants to be a hero. He is confident and outgoing and is active in the playground at little lunch. But even brave heroes can be scared of some things.
What others say about Battie	Rory – "Battie is a bit weird when he dresses up as Stretcho – he's not like Battie" Tamara "Stretcho is the opposite of what he is – he's not big and tough at all, he's really shy and skinny." "He wants to rescue everybody" Rory - "He's still playing by himself"	Battie is not quiet or shy when he is dressed up as Stretcho, he is big, tough, outgoing, brave and heroic. Battie still finds it tricky to play with others even when dressed up.
How others respond to Battie	His classmates don't seem to understand how Stretcho is so different to Battie usually. They come and check on him when he sits alone.	Battie's classmates care about him.